Discerning God's Best series

Embark on a train and wagon journey from South Carolina to Missouri with characters who leave behind family and cultural ties to follow God's will. Though detours and deep heartache abound, they find blessings even in the strangest circumstances. While life on the road can be perilous, they find hope in God's fulfilled promises. Steps of faith lead to lives of acceptance and happiness and the desire to share the love of Christ, no matter the cost. Even when town leaders refuse to protect a community's most vulnerable members, those committed to wholeheartedly serving God will find a way to help.

Discerning God's best on the frontier isn't easy, but the unexpected detours make life an exciting adventure.
